Sundance Trio Performs Recital to Benefit School Sisters of Notre Dame

ST. LOUIS, MO – The Sundance Trio, an ensemble of oboe, bassoon and piano, will perform on March 13 and 14, 2010, in the chapel of the School Sisters of Notre Dame motherhouse in south St. Louis County. The recital includes classical, jazz and modern music and benefits the active ministries and retirement needs of the School Sisters of Notre Dame.

The Sundance Trio features oboist Geralyn Giovannetti, bassoonist Christian Smith and pianist Jed Moss, all from Utah. All are prolific performers, having made numerous recordings and appearances in various symphony and chamber orchestras throughout the world. Giovannetti and Smith are both professors at the Brigham Young University School of Music. For the past 14 years, Moss was the keyboardist for the pop rock group Air Supply.

The March 13 performance is at 7 p.m., followed by a wine and cheese reception, and costs $40. The March 14 performance is at 2 p.m. and costs $25. The motherhouse is located at 320 East Ripa Avenue, St. Louis, MO, 63125.
